Dear Class of 2008,

It is with great pride that I stand before you in testament to your accomplishments in reaching one of the many milestones your life will hold. As you look around, be sure to offer a special thanks to those who have had a hand in your successes as they too rejoice in your moment of triumph.

Personally, I wish to thank each of you, our Class of 2008, for the unique opportunity to observe your successes through the years and participate in this ceremony. Furthermore, I extend thanks to all of our staff, administration, parents/families, school board members, and community members who have collectively made this evening a reality.

To the Class of 2008; on behalf of our entire school community, we wish you success in your future endeavors and we are confident that you will continue to reflect the values, ethics, and academics you have obtained from our school, your family, and your community. Congratulations and best wishes to you, the Class of 2008.

Thoughts and prayers,

Stephen C. Zall
